Additional information

About the Regional Council's rating information database (RID)

Rating unit information for properties within the Bay of Plenty Regional Council region is updated from information provided by the relevant district or city council that the property is rated in.

The information is received on a regular basis from the council's Valuation Service Provider, but any recent changes regarding land and capital value, land area and legal description may not show on this website immediately. For any queries about the information displayed contact your city or district council first to check they have processed the property updates.

Remissions

If your property currently receives a rates remission; and is sold or the use of the property changes, the remission may no longer be available. If you are the owner or other authorised person you can obtain the information held by contacting us (/your-council/contact-us/rates-general-query/) .
